

Earl of Lisport

Lord Lisport, Eldred Alegar, is a landless noble in Fork. He and his younger brother, the Honourable Meril Alegar, own the prestigious Lisport House in Fork, at Prospect Street and Godsend Lane.

Both are currently unmarried. Their parents, Lady Miriam Alegar and Lord Lisport, Meril Alegar II, died a few years ago. The brothers are known as carousers in Fork. You knew them both, though you knew Meril better. Meril Alegar was always fun, and always overshadowed by his more driven elder brother.

Their great-great-great grandfather, Colonel Elroy Courlander, was a hero of the Goblin Wars. Their most famous ancestor, however, is Melody Lisport, immortalized in children's verse with Melly Lisport took an axe... Legend has it that young Melody Lisport killed her entire family except for one nephew. It was after Colonel Courlander's murder that the town of Lisport was overrun.

Lisport was never resettled after the wars, though the Alegars maintain Lisport Manor in minimal repair.
